F. Relocation of a Residence of a Child: (Choose one)

1. The relocation of a child's residence in which s/he lives at least 150 days per year is governed by RSA 461-A:12. Any time after the filing of a parenting or divorce petition, a parent shall not relocate the residence of a child without a court order unless: 1) relocation results in the residence being closer to the other parent, or 2) relocation is to any location within the child's current school district, or 3) relocation is necessary to protect the safety of the parent or child, or both, as later determined by the court. In general, either parent may move the child's residence if it results in the parents living closer and if it will not affect the child's school enrollment. Prior to relocating the child's residence farther from the other parent or in such a way that school enrollment will be impacted, the parent shall provide reasonable notice to the other parent. For purposes of this section, 60 days notice shall be presumed to be reasonable unless other factors are found to be present or the parents have a written agreement to the contrary. At the request of either parent, the court shall hold a hearing on the relocation issue. Either parent may request that the court issue ex parte orders as provided in RSA 461-A:9 to prevent or allow relocation of the child(ren).
